

Name: _____

Week #1

Across

- 6. a conclusion is suggested based solely on someone's or something's history/source rather than its current meaning or context
- 7. a pithy observation that contains a general truth, such as, "if it ain't broke, don't fix it."
- 9. the use of a word referring to or replacing a word used earlier in a sentence, to avoid repetition
- 11. the reasoner begins with what they are trying to end with

13. the occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning of adjacent or closely connected words.

14. the omission or absence of a conjunction between parts of a sentence

15. a person or thing that is the direct opposite of someone or something else

Down

1. Creating the false impression that there are only two choices to be made for a situation (include dash)

2. the making of a reference to something

3. one argues for an idea based upon an irrelevant appeal to its popularity

4. a short and amusing or interesting story about a real incident or person

5. relating to

8. Attacking an opponent, instead of their argument

10. a comparison between two things, typically for the purpose of explanation or clarification

12. preceding in time or order; previous or preexisting