

Name: _____

Date: _____

Week 2 Review of the news

Across

3. the person who composes articles for newspapers

5. these are visuals used to support the article's purpose and message

8. this supports the facts presented in an article

10. the person responsible for checking all elements of the paper for truth before its release

12. the place the article is writing about

14. information that keeps the public up-to-date with events happening in a place

15. all news articles should be based on these

Down

1. a smaller and short brief that further explains the purpose of the article

2. this is the text that explains a visual that is used in a news article

4. the format of text in news articles

6. this word explains that newspaper articles need to be short and to the point

7. this gives a brief and bold purpose the article

9. a viewpoint held by a person

11. the type of vocabulary used in news articles

13. this is the collective noun given to the varied readers