

Week 3 terms test

Across

2. An electrical instrument used to hold rotary instruments
3. Having notch like projections that extend from a flat surface
5. Referring to mechanical radiant energy of water and sound vibrations used to break down material or tissue
6. Twisting or turning force

8. Part of a clamp that is shaped into four prongs to help stabilize the clamp on the tooth
10. Pertaining to selected teeth visible through the dam; exposed
12. Blades on the working end of a finishing rotary instrument that resembles pleats

Down

1. Part of an instrument where the handle attaches to the working end
4. To restore or bring back to its natural appearance
7. To reverse the position, order, or condition. To turn inside out or upside down.
9. An alloy with one of the constituents being Mercury
11. A steel or tungsten carbide rotary cutting instrument