

Week 4 Vocabulary

Across

5. A population that is still growing or a population that has not reached its carrying capacity.

7. A population that has reached its carrying capacity.

9. is a measure of the number of deaths in a particular population, scaled to the size of that population, per unit of time.

10. The number of people who die per population per year.

11. A factor that does depend on populations

12. The maximum number of individuals of a species that the human population will tolerate.

13. The number of people living in a given area

Down

1. Is defined as the total number of children that would be born to each woman.

2. The age distribution of individuals within a population.

3. Is a factor that does not depend on population.

4. Is the frequency or proportion with which a disease appears in a population.

6. Maximum amount of individuals the earth's resources can support.

8. The number of babies born in a population per year.