

Weekly Crossword

Across

2. They are put on documents and letters that are sent by post
3. Our thirteen colonies that are united together
9. Another name for us patriots that fight for freedom against England
10. The main government body of England
12. A name for a British soldier
13. Citizens of the colonies who are faithful to England and King George

15. A type of government where the majority of the power is held by a king or queen

Down

1. Our dear city
4. A bore gun that fired lead balls
5. Soldiers that are prepared to fight and have meetings and drills several times a year. They possess their own equipment and weapons
6. The blade at the end of a musket

7. A long rod that pushes gunpowder down into the barrel of a musket
8. When a government is overthrown so a new one can be established
11. A drink that is taxed, you put the leaves into your cup of steaming hot water
14. Another name for a loyalist