

Name: _____

Date: _____

What Has Ensemble been Working?

Across

4. The state that Williamsburg is in.
 6. This means vocal performance that occurs without pitched instruments- just the voices.
 10. This Williamsburg performance category is for smaller, more precise and quiet a cappella singing. Madrigals are often sung in this category.
 13. At the beginning of the madrigal, "Let the Song Begin," there are 'staggered' entrances by the choir section. The first section in is _____.
 15. These mini-syllables are based on Latin pronunciation, and we use them almost daily in warm-ups and sight-reading.
 17. Yesterday, Mr. D handed out two papers. One was about t-shirt _____.
 18. Often in Latin words, the stress goes not on the last syllable, but on the _____-_____ syllable.
 20. Viva" is in what language?
 23. At the beginning of the madrigal, "Let the Song Begin," there are 'staggered' entrances by the choir section. The second section in is _____.
 24. Hominy is sometimes dried, then ground up to make what breakfast food?
 25. This Williamsburg performance category is for bigger, louder singing of modern religious/worship music, often with electric or percussion instruments.
 27. "Agnus Dei" is in what language?
 28. Our spring concert at SEHS takes place in what month?
 29. Finish the lyrics: "....let it swell with _____.
 30. At the beginning of the madrigal, "Let the Song Begin," there are 'staggered' entrances by the choir section. The third section in is _____.
 31. We have at least one remaining performance of the National Anthem. It will be at a Greensboro Grasshoppers _____ game.
 32. Finish the lyrics: "Let the song begin in _____"

Down

1. Mr. Dobbins and some of our classmates are at this event today.
 2. This is the title of the short, quick, upbeat a cappella Madrigal we will perform in the Chamber Choir category.
 3. This is the title of the lively, happy foreign we will perform in the Mixed Choir category. It is from an opera by Mozart.
 5. This is the title of the slow, mystical, ethereal Russian a cappella piece we will perform in the Chamber Choir category. We also did it at MPA.
 7. When we sing the word "harmony" we omit the "R," making it almost sound like this style of puffed corn.
 8. Finish the lyrics: "Let the _____ swell with..."
 9. This Williamsburg performance category is for a choir of only higher- perhaps only female voices.
 11. This is the title of the slow, foreign language piece we are learning right now. We will perform it in the Mixed Choir Category in Williamsburg.
 12. If you are going to Williamsburg, how many meetings do your parents have to attend?
 14. How many parent meeting dates are available?
 16. This word means next-to-last.
 19. In a four-syllable Latin word, the penultimate syllable is the _____ syllable
 21. In a three-syllable Latin word, the penultimate syllable is the _____ syllable.
 22. The name of the city where our next competition will take place.
 26. Agnus Dei means "_____ of God" in Latin.