

What is Agriculture

Across

- 2. Food and fiber ____ is a huge industry for agriculture. Consumers want products that are as ready to eat as possible
- 11. ____ the study of the relationship of organisms in an environment
- 12. The ____ industry gives us milk, cheese, butter, and other products.
- 14. Agriculture uses a system for ____ products all over the country
- 18. Soybeans can be grown and used to produce ____
- 19. ____ can be grown and used to produce ethanol
- 20. The ____ industry gives us products such as eggs and meat
- 21. We export 70 ____ more agricultural goods than we import

- 23. ____ deals with understanding the laws of nature
 - 24. Farms recycle by applying _____ to the fields to replace nutrients in the soil
- Down
- 1. One American farmer feeds more than _____ people
 - 3. _____ grows more cotton than the United States
 - 4. ____ industry gives us pork chops, bacon, ham and sausage
 - 5. ____ is the study of all living things
 - 6. _____ is the time that we can produce a product (vegetable, plant, etc)
 - 7. ____ is involved with growing plants and animals for the use by people
 - 8. Agriculture is America's largest _____

- 9. ____ can help give health benefits and reduce fats in meats
- 10. A ____ can be produced, sold or bought
- 13. An ____ is a product that is brought in from another country
- 15. We pay a ____ portion of our income on food
- 16. An ____ is a product that is shipped to another country
- 17. Growing ____ plants is a growing aspect of agriculture
- 22. ____ is the most dominate fiber produced in the US