

Women and Gender Studies Vocabulary

Across

- 1. The societal, cultural, and institutional norm of heterosexual privilege and homosexual discrimination imbedded in society.
- 3. The change of ones assigned sex to their chosen gender identity, may it be by changing ones physical sex characteristics or simply by presenting oneself gendered clothing or makeup.
- 8. The clear acceptance of heterosexuality in a heteronormative society and the benefits of claiming heterosexuality when one is truly gay just because heterosexuality is the "norm".
- 11. The physical characteristics you exhibit in order to match your internal gender identification.
- 15. Groups who are supportive about the trans community and the issues that transpeople face.
- 17. Individuals who are not sexually attracted to others or interested in sexual acts.
- 18. A term reclaimed in the lgbt+ community to turn the term from being used as hate speech to a sense of pride and community. Anyone who identifies as non-heteronormative and embraces gender diversity.
- 20. When ones sex coexists with there identified gender and gender stereotyped characteristics.
- 21. Hiding someones sexual orientation due to a fear of rejection and hate.

- 22. Someone who is attracted romantically, emotionally, and sexually to both men and women.
 - 23. An acronym meaning Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender. That is defined as a community of people with diverse sexualities and gender identities.
 - 25. Openly non-heteronormative or trans.
 - 26. The physical and material characteristics associated with ones identified gender.
 - 27. Someone who is born with diverse genitalia that does not conform to the male female norm.
 - 28. Sharing ones gender identity or sexual orientation without their permission or knowledge.
 - 29. People who identify as both female and male.
 - 30. The acceptance of oneself as having a LGBT+ identity and feeling comfortable enough with it to share with others.
 - 31. The gender given to people at birth based purely upon their genitalia.
 - 32. Heterosexuals who realize the heteronormative society we live in. And the belief of heterosexism as a social injustice.
- Down
- 2. The introspective belief of ones own identified gender.
 - 4. Anyone hateful or fearful of the LGBT+ community that can escalate from hateful humor to assault.
 - 5. Those who are sexually, emotionally, and romantically attracted to those of the same gender.

- 6. SRS, A surgery that some (not all) transpeople decide to get to diminish their bottom dysphoria by getting surgery so their genitalia matches their identified gender.
- 7. Any inequality faced may it be insitutional, societal or cultural felt by someone due to their gender, i.e. women as the after thought of societal norms and cultural expectations.
- 9. Ones physical and romantic attraction to others.
- 10. People who don't identify with the gender binary.
- 12. The fear and often hatred of those who do not conform to their societal gender assignment.
- 13. Someone whose sex characteristics assigned at birth does not match the gender they identify with.
- 14. What one physically is identified as at birth, based on physical sex characteristics?
- 16. What is another word for heterosexual?
- 19. A term used to identify anyone who doesn't identified with their assigned sex.
- 24. Women or girls who are romantically, emotionally, and sexually attracted to other women or girls.