

Women in the 1930's

Across

4. Women in the 30's wore clothes with _____, full collars, ruffled cap sleeves .
8. One of the woman's duty was to shop smart or _____ to look smart by wearing the latest 30's fashion.
10. Eleanor Roosevelt was a _____ and politician.
11. _____ made more money than women, by nearly half.
12. The clothes made of nubby, textured, or crinkled "rough" _____ became a trendy.

13. They worked jobs like cook, waitress, bookkeeper, cashier, _____, school teacher, factory worker and many more.

14. Women's roles outside of work was to clean, cook, fold laundry, take care of their _____ and kids

Down

1. During the Great Depression, many women _____ in place of their husband.
2. There are many famous working women; some are Amelia Earhart, Shirley Temple, _____, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Nanette Fabray.

3. _____ million women , 24.3% of all Women in the country, were employed.
5. The ILGWU secured wages of _____ to fifty dollars per week.
6. Women were looked down upon if they had sexual intercourse while unmarried, abortion, outside working, _____ in public, and having affairs
7. _____ became more of a staple, with it being more inexpensive than buttons.
9. They wore those items to appear more _____ and tall.