

Name: _____

Date: _____

Word of the Day

Across

2. to droop or hang loosely. It can also mean to act or move in a relaxed or lazy manner.

5. intransigent, characterized by refusal to compromise or to abandon an extreme position or

6. keen enjoyment or an enjoyably exciting quality

10. amicable, showing a polite and friendly desire to avoid disagreement and

15. the ability to continue in spite of difficulties

16. to come or be together as friends

17. to criticize (someone) harshly for doing something wrong

18. misbegotten, ill-conceived. It can also mean having an improper

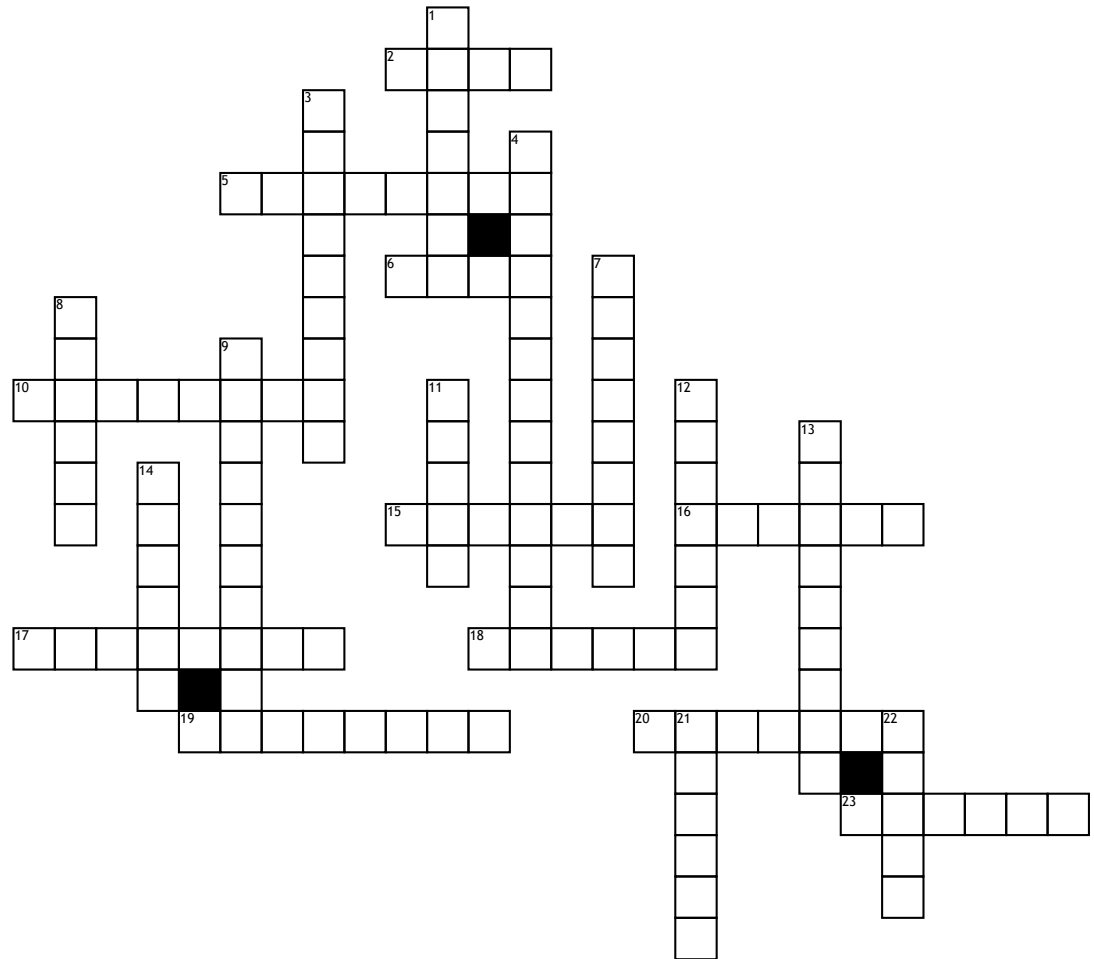

19. imperfectly formed or formulated

20. cavalier, having or showing no concern for important or serious

23. of, relating to, or befitting a person's child

Down

1. to plot secretly for a deceitful or illegal purpose

3. to free or remove someone or something from an entanglement or difficulty

4. a person who owns or manages a restaurant

7. vestige, a trace, mark, or visible sign left by something lost or

8. to turn (something) into something of greater value.

9. devotion or loyalty to a person or cause

11. to deceive, win over, or influence with pleasing words or actions or by trickery

12. a mammalian behavior (as of horses or cats) in which the animal inhales with the mouth open and upper lip curled.

13. fret, to become worried or

14. difficult to understand or unable to understand what is obvious

21. having or showing skill, cleverness, or resourcefulness in handling situations

22. A _____ is an heir or descendant of a wealthy or influential family