

Name: _____

Date: _____

Word search

Across

3. the incentive that encourages people and organizations to improve their material well-being by seeking to gain from economic activities
4. The ability of everyone to enter and compete in the market of his or her own free choice
6. a situation in which people who are not part of a market place interaction benefit from it or pay part of its cost

7. a side effect of a transaction that affects someone other than the producer can buy
8. a person who does not pay for a good or service but who benefits from it when it is provided
9. the basic set of support system
11. goods and services provided by the government and consumed by the public as a group

12. a mixed economic system that includes some government protections, provisions, and regulations

Down

1. a situation in which people decide for themselves which legal agreements to enter into
2. A capitalist system is also known as what?
5. a situation in which everyone has the same economic rights under the law
10. the financial gain a seller makes from a business transaction