

Name: _____

Date: _____

Wordmasters

Across

1. Most of things Courtney says are _____, they have no purpose whatsoever!
2. When Mark put paper into the fire, it _____ well.
5. One would say that Martin Luther King Jr. was a _____ because of all of the changes he made to something he was passionate about.
7. Kelsey and her mom were at the store and Kelsey asked if she could get jelly beans. When her mom said no, Kelsey _____ on the floor until her mom told her that if she didn't get up she would be grounded.
8. The light blue walls of her room were _____, but the bright green walls of her sister's room were cheerful.
13. Albert Einstein is a _____ figure because of his wisdom and characteristics.
16. Eeyore from Winnie The Pooh is a noticeably _____ character because of how gloomy he looks.
17. In health class, they teach you things to try and _____ you from smoking, like showing you lungs of a smoker and lungs of a healthy non-smoker.
18. She was laying at home in bed with the flu, looking _____.

20. Ally had been going to the same supermarket for 10 years. One day she was admiring the apples that she always buys for $0.99 each. She grabbed 4 like she always does and glanced at the price. "$1.50 for an apple!? This price _____ is an outrage!
21. The girls stared in awe, at the _____ Statue of Liberty. It is 305 feet tall!
22. Some people might say that school is _____, but others enjoy it and love to come to school.
23. Superman doesn't have any _____ because he is perfect.
24. Instead of saying shut up, the teacher decided to use a(n) _____: be quiet, please.
25. The students were full of _____, as they whooped and hollered after the final bell on the last day of school.
- Down
3. Courtney felt that she should not _____ the fact that she is secretly a seahorse because she thought that she would be made fun of.
4. The man noticed that his forehead was gradually getting bigger. Then, he realized that his hairline was beginning to _____ as he aged.
6. While Lauren was practicing her violin, she was getting louder, then softer, then louder etc. Her little brother asked her what that was called and she responded "A _____ and a decrescendo."

9. As soon as Brian came home from school, he entered a state of _____ because he had worked hard all day.
10. The jeweler was trying to sell me a watch for $300, but the sign in front of it said 30% off. We _____ for at least 20 minutes before he gave it to me for 15% off.
11. Stephanie is so _____, she sings and dances during class all of the time and she has no shame in doing so.
12. When Courtney didn't get what she wanted, she threw a temper-tantrum. Gosh, she's such a _____.
14. Kelsey decided that she wanted to try soccer, though she never has before. On her team, you could tell that she was a _____ compared to all of the skilled players.
15. Nik Wallenda, a type-rope walker, does _____ acts like walking across Niagara Falls considering how dangerous it is.
19. Kelsey looked at her empty cup. "Yuck!" she thought, look at all the _____ I left behind, it's all backwash!