

Words

Across

1. an economic system combining private and public enterprise.
2. a system of money in general use in a particular country.
10. the degree of wealth and material comfort available to a person or community.
11. a limited quantity of a particular product that under official controls can be produced, exported, or imported.
12. an official ban on trade or other commercial activity with a particular country.
13. tax or duty to be paid on a particular class of imports or exports.

Down

3. a method of production where a business, area or economy focuses on the production of a limited scope of products or services to gain greater degrees of productive efficiency within an overall system.
4. An economy, or economic system, that relies exclusively on markets to allocate resources and to answer all three questions of allocation. This theoretical ideal has no governments, markets are used to make all allocation decisions.
5. the value of one currency for the purpose of conversion to another.

6. the percentage of people who are able to read and write vs those who are not.
7. a system where the government, rather than the free market, determines what goods should be produced, how much should be produced and the price at which the goods are offered for sale.
8. a continuous sequence in which adjacent elements are not perceptibly different from each other, although the extremes are quite distinct.
9. measures that governments or public authorities introduce to make imported goods or services less competitive than locally produced goods and services.