

World Studies Section 1

Across

1. Flat land alongside a river formed by mud and silt deposits by floods

5. A piece of land pointing into a lake or ocean

6. A raised flat area of land with steep sides, and is smaller than a Mesa

10. A large powerful waterfall

11. An are of land saturated by water

14. The place where a river flows into a lake or ocean

15. The level of the oceans surface where it meet land; used as a point in measuring heights and depths of elevation

Down

2. A narrow strip of land connecting two larger areas of land

3. A spot to fertile land in a desert, supplied with water by a well or spring

4. A triangular area of land formed from deposits at the mouth of a river

7. A wide, treeless plain with tall grasses

8. Part of an ocean or lake partially closed in by land

9. A narrow strip of water connecting two larger bodies of water

12. A broad flat area of land higher than the surrounding land

13. A large level area of short grassland with few or no trees