

Name: _____

Date: _____

Wound Care CH 28

Across

1. Erosion of tissue from underneath intact skin at the wound edge
4. Tubes that provides a means for removing blood and drainage from a wound
8. Damaged skin or soft tissue resulting from trauma
10. Separation of wound edges
11. A period during which new cells fill and seal a wound

12. Dead tissue on a wound surface that is moist, stringy, yellow, tan, gray, or green
13. A technique for flushing out debris in a wound
14. A combination of new blood vessels, fibroblasts, and epithelial

15. A cover over a wound

Down

2. Dry brown or black devitalized tissue

3. A strip or roll of cloth wrapped around the body part
5. Cell duplication
6. A period during which the wound undergoes changes and maturation
7. A wound caused by prolonged capillary compression
9. wound separation with protrusion of organs

Word Bank

Regeneration
slough
Drain Irrigation

evisceration
necrotic tissue
Granulation tissue
Remodeling

Dressing Proliferation wound
Bandage

Undermining
Pressure ulcer
Dehiscence