

Name: _____

Date: _____

Wounds and Asepsis

Across

2. A reddish blue swelling on the skin due to a localized collection of blood under the skin
 4. A hypertrophic scar
 10. A whiteish protein that adds tensile strength to a wound
 11. Thick necrotic tissue on a wound
 12. The cessation of bleeding
 13. A deficiency in the blood supply to the tissue.
 15. The yellow or white tissue that adheres to the ulcer bed in strings or in clumps

17. Tissue softened by prolonged wetting or soaking

18. Protrusion of the internal viscera through an incision

19. The contamination of the surface of a wound with microorganisms

Down

1. The process whereby macrophages engulf microorganisms and cell debris
 3. The renewal of tissue during wound healing
 5. A factor that inhibits wound healing in the elderly

6. The area of loss of superficial layers of tissue

7. A wound caused by a blow from a blunt instrument

8. Removal of necrotic material from a wound

9. Partial or total rupturing of a sutured wound

14. The process of pus formation

16. The force that acts parallel to the skin surface