

Write a Play

Across

- 3. The end of the play is the .....
- 4. Before you start writing you to ..... your story.
- 8. How many main sections are there in a play
- 9. The ..... of a play is when the problem is solved.
- 11. In addition to talking a play should include.....

- 12. You need to have the ..... in mind when you start.
- 13. The audience cares more if your characters show .....
- 14. Wooden cut outs and walls are an example of .....

Down

- 1. Magazines and coins are an example of .....

- 2. .... is what the characters say to each other
- 5. The people, animals, or creatures in a play are called the what?
- 6. The characters are trying to solve a what?
- 7. This tells the series of events in your play
- 10. In a play one event leads to ....