

Y12 - Jargon Buster

Across

- 4. Funding given to a student based on their attainment in a specific subject such as sport or music.
6. An honours degree that allows you to study more than one subject.
8. A system used by universities to fill the remaining available undergraduate places or if you did not achieve your expected grades.
9. A word given to describe first-year students.
10. The name of a degree following the completion of your level 6 Bachelors Degree.
13. Fees paid directly to your university to cover your course costs.

- 16. A degree you can complete if you have not achieved the appropriate grades or studied the correct level 3 qualification to study a Bachelors Degree.
17. The name of sub-topics you study within your course at university.
18. An offer from a university that grants you a place to study, regardless of your grades.
19. UK-based organisation whose main role is to operate the application process for British universities.
20. Money provided to cover your living costs including rent, food, socialising etc.

Down

- 1. A long essay on a particular subject, usually completed as a final project to complete a degree or diploma.
2. The grounds and buildings of a university or college.

- 3. A university student who has not yet completed their first degree.
5. The name of the residence where most first-year students live.
7. A building containing collections of books, journals, and quiet study areas.
11. The name of a course that includes a 1-year work placement.
12. The name of a, typically, 3-year degree that results in a level 6 qualification.
14. A high-level educational institution in which students study for degrees and academic research is completed.
15. An offer from a university that offers you a place to study, dependent on achieving appropriate grades, your performance in an interview, or a competent portfolio.