

Name: _____

Date: _____

YB Treasure Hunt 2018

Across

4. After a particularly bad quartet rehearsal, a cellist pulled out a weapon and said "Time to say your goodbyes. Duel in a few minutes in the gym". (Piece name)
7. You're gonna love the music by this composer, who also made a name for himself as a clarinetist (Last Name)
8. Are you getting tired? Can you handle these puns? (First name, native spelling)
9. The conductor of the Berlin Philharmonic exited the airport far ahead of his colleagues, proudly proclaiming, 'This is why you only bring carry-on luggage!' (Last name)
12. Did you enjoy that piece on that concert? I personally thought that the work was a bit crummy. (Piece title)

Down

1. I'm hungry for some chamber music. Could I request some a duo for violin and cello? (First name)
2. One night at a Yellow Barn dinner, Daniel took a bite of his meal and immediately spat it out in disgust. "Why does this beef taste like a shoe?" "Lamb, it actually is", said Alice. Daniel then ran off to the co-op to find other tastier options for sustenance. (Piece title)
3. A violinist sat at a bar, talking with her pianist about their previous sonata rehearsal. "Doesn't this music just make you feel so hungry?!" she asked. (First name)
5. My best friend Bob wore flip flops to rehearsal, but I thought he was more of a shoe guy! (Last name)
6. This composer published his first work in 1869, marking his first major foray into the music world. (First Name)
10. There was this one group at Yellow Barn that spent all day complaining about their piece....but I think that's only because they let their attention roam (Last name)
11. Darn! I'm at the grocery store but I forgot my shopping ____! (Last name)