

Name: _____ Date: _____

Year 4 spellings

- |  |                  |
|--|------------------|
| 1. to share something out                                | A. occasion      |
| 2. the opposite of multiple                              | B. confusion     |
| 3. bombs do this   | C. television    |
| 4. when dynamite is lit this happens                     | D. division      |
| 5. to make your mind up                                  | E. collide       |
| 6. when an outcome has been agreed                       | F. pension       |
| 7. to crash into something                               | G. collision     |
| 8. when lots of objects have hit into each other         | H. comprehension |
| 9. to muddle something up                                | I. persuasion    |
| 10. when things aren't going to plan                     | J. suspension    |
| 11. to understand things fully                           | K. explosion     |
| 12. you can watch this                                   | L. decide        |
| 13. to encourage someone to do something                 | M. explode       |
| 14. the part of the car that stops you feeling big bumps | N. divide        |
| 15. money you can receive when you retire                | O. confuse       |
| 16. a celebration for a special event                    | P. decision      |