

Name: _____

Date: _____

Year 8 Sexual Education

Across

3. Physical, social, emotional and mental changes adolescents go through by the release of hormones

6. Carries the egg from the ovary down to the uterus

8. Sperm is produced here.

9. A match stick sized insert that sits in a woman's arm to stop ovulation

11. Biological characteristics of males and females as determined by a person's genes

12. A pear-shaped organ about the size of a woman's fist that stretches to house the baby, placenta and amniotic fluid during pregnancy

14. This is when a male withdraws his penis from the vagina just before ejaculation. The idea is not to allow any semen to enter the vagina

15. The oral hormonal contraception

16. Form of barrier contraception if used properly, and also reduce your risk of contracting a STI

17. Normal vaginal bleeding that occurs as part of a woman's monthly cycle

18. How people experience and express themselves as sexual beings

19. Methods to prevent pregnancy and STIs

20. Sex can also refer to _____

Down

1. Characteristics used to describe women and men and men which are socially determined

2. STI refers to _____

4. Not having sexual intercourse

5. When one sperm enters the egg in the outer portion of the fallopian tube

7. _____ is the narrow tube that the mature sperm travel along to get to the prostate gland

10. _____ is the release of an egg and is most likely to occur about the middle of the menstrual cycle though this timing differs among females

13. Where the egg is produced