

Name: _____

Date: _____

Business homework

Across

2. Where the owners of a business are legally responsible for all the debts in a business
 4. Where the owners of a business are not legally responsible for all of the debts a business has
 8. A business ownership structure where one person owns an unincorporated company
 9. A business ownership structure that is incorporated and has shares, but the shares can only be sold with the agreement of all the shareholders

11. A business that has its own legal identity

14. A business ownership structure that is incorporated and has shares that can be bought and sold by anyone

15. The difference between revenue and cost

16. An owner of shares in a company

Down

1. Declared in law as unable to pay their debts

3. A payment that a shareholder gets if the company makes a profit

5. A unit of ownership in a company

6. The right to register a choice in an election

7. Any of a number of individuals with interests and investments in a business

10. A valuable item owned by a business or money owed to a business

12. A company's wealth in the form of money or other assets

13. A business ownership with two or more people running it