

Name: _____

Date: _____

Leadership In Group Communication

Across

3. meeting minutes/ within twenty four hours a meeting or send a written record of the discussion actions and or
 5. decision making/ the process of making choices among
 7. situational view of leadership/ maintains that effective leadership is determined by the groups readiness to take on a
 14. traits view of leadership/ assumes that all talented leaders share certain personal and physical
 15. substantive conflict/ revolves around disagreements about the group
 16. structured problem solving/ teams collect information on the nature and scope of the problem facing

17. group think/ people want to maintain harmony more than anything else so they avoid challenging one another

Down

1. democratic leadership style/ who invite input from group members and encourage shared decision making are
 2. group brainstorming/ a team focuses on generating as many ideas as possible to solve a defined
 4. functional view of leadership / considers the types of communication behaviors that help a group work toward its
 6. meeting agenda/ a structured written outline that guides communication among meeting participants by showing which topics will be

8. consensus/ decisions means that all members support a given course of
 9. shared leadership/ each group member has the capacity to influence and direct the group in achieving its
 10. leadership/ is the ability to influence and direct others to meet group
 11. communication climate/ emotional tone established within the
 12. laissez-faire leadership style/ spectrum are leaders who provide little direction or structure to their
 13. affective conflict/ steams from interpersonal gender or cultural