

Review Activity: Toxoplasmosis Crossword

Across

4. The disease effects many _____blooded mammals including humans.

5. What is the definitive host for this parasite?

9. This disease is extremely dangerous for women that are _____.

10. Depending on the host's _____ strength, other symptoms can develop.

11. It has been seen that _____ have a decrease reaction to cats as they normally do when affected by this disease.

12. _____ potential: A disease/ parasite that can be trasmitted from animal to human.

15. What parasite causes this diseases?

16. what type of transmission is the ingestion of an intermediate host?

17. Mature cats will generally only shed oocysts for 1-3 _____ after becoming infected.

18. Toxoplasmosis can cause perminant _____ damage to its host.

Down

1. Risk factors: _____ humans, pregnant women.

2. What diagnostic test is done to detect antibodies for this disease?

3. What is the infective stage to cats?

6. Symptoms are usually _____.

7. Injection of _____ meat from infected animals is a way this disease can be transmitted to humans.

8. what is one of the treatments for Toxoplasmosis?

13. The transmission rate in untreated pregnant women is 65% in there 3rd _____.

14. Direct transmission: ingestion of the _____.