

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

International Finance Vocabulary

Across

1. A political and economic group that was formed in 1992 to encourage cooperation between 27 member states
3. This is any good transported from one country to another
5. Value of one currency expressed in terms of another
10. This is financial assistance from the government to encourage the production of or the purchase of a good
14. The ability of one country or region to specialize in producing a good that another country can produce for the purposes of trade
16. This is the general name for the voluntary exchange of goods and/or services
19. The paper money and coins that make up the money supply of a nation
20. This is the name for a category of trade barriers that a country may impose on another country or countries
22. The amount that money can buy

24. Tax on imported good designated to prevent domestic companies from having to compete with foreign goods of lower price or superior quality
25. This is the ability of a nation to produce more of a certain product than another country or region
26. The practice of goods being traded between countries without any tariffs that might slow down trade
27. The amount of currency that can be traded for another countries currency at any given time

Down

2. Type of protectionist trade restriction that sets a physical limit on the quantity of a good that can be imported into a country in a given period of time
4. Condition in international trade when the value of the imports into a nation is greater than the value of its exports
6. Type of money whose value comes from the item form which it is made, often precious metal such as silver or gold
7. This is the difference in monetary value of exports and imports for a country

8. This occurs when the value of currency is matched to another currency or other value such as gold
9. This occurs when a country exports more than it imports
11. Process of prohibiting commerce and trade with another country. This is often done to affect the country to change international policy
12. An agreement signed in 1993 to reduce tariffs between the U.S., Canada, and Mexico
13. This is a taxation on imported goods and is usually designated to protect domestic production of or the purchase of a good
15. Goods that are brought into one country from another
17. This is a political and economic organization of 10 countries in Southeast Asia to improve economic growth
18. This measures the flow of payments between one country and all other countries
21. A restriction to regulate international commerce and business
23. The legally accepted payment for goods and services