crossword puzzle

Across
3. a number with a fraction and a whole number
4. a number that divides into another without a remainder
6. tow numbers that multiply together to make a given number
12. a fraction where the numerator is bigger than the denominator
13. The answer to an addition probelm.
15. the flip of a fraction(turning it upside down)

17. fractions that name the same number
18. The answer to a division problem
Down
1. the largest number that divides evenly
2. the smallest multiple of two numbers
5. The answer to an subtraction problem
7. putting a fraction into simplest form (the only common factor is 1)

8. make all improper fractions into mixed numbers and make sure that all fractions have no common factors except one
9. The number is divisible by another number if it is a factor of it or if the number divides evenly into it.
10. having only two factors (1 and its self)
11. The answer a multiplcation problem.
14. being exactly divided by a number
16. The number being divided.