

Name: _____

advanced child psych final review

Across

- 4. this center would usually include activities where children can recognize shapes, sort objects, create patterns and count
- 8. this researcher believed children are motivated to accomplish more when they accomplish something independently
- 9. questions that require more than a yes or no answer
- 10. learning by watching
- 13. the ability to develop the thrive in times of hardship and crisis
- 14. crafts
- 15. resources stop for kids with special needs at age
- 17. rule following

- 18. The vowel sound and any sound after it in a syllable

- 19. when teachers help bring about learning through play without controlling it

- 21. the consonant sounds that precede a vowel sound in a syllable

- 22. handling a ball

- 23. activities that require children to complete an activity together

- 25. washing hands

- 26. working one on one with a child

Down

- 1. fear of being accepted by peers

- 2. desire to have friends

- 3. periods of time when moving from one activity to another

- 5. learning to watch adults and mimicking some of their behaviors

- 6. use the whole body to solve a problem

- 7. Lev Vygotsky believed in providing temporary support needed to learn new concepts

- 11. involve the learning of language: reading, writing and speaking

- 12. The smallest unit of sound - a letter or a blend of letters

- 16. the skill of putting yourself in another's place, understanding their feelings

- 20. questions that require only a yes or no answer

- 24. learns by listening