

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

algebra 1 crossword

Across

- 2. each x has exactly one y
4. useful way to organize data that can be categorized by 2 variables
7. is a sentence that two things are equal
13. interest earned or paid on both the principal & previously earned interest
14. a set of ordered pairs
15. the sum of two rational numbers is always _____

17. adding the distances between each data value & the mean; dividing by the numbers of data values

18. study of data, including collecting, interpreting, analyzing & presenting data

19. similar to a linear equation, but the equal sign is replaced

20. expression under the radical

Down

1. function that forms a straight line

3. combination of functions

5. an expression or equation

6. a value that is very different from the other values

8. sequence you are multiplying or dividing

9. movement of the function along the y-axis

10. $y=mx+b$

11. $f(x)=a(x-h)^2+k$

12. a line that the graph approaches but never touches

16. number part in front of the terms with variables