

Name: _____

Date: _____

biology

Across

5. leaf divided into multiple leaflets connected along one main stem called the rachis ; black walnut

7. the spongy ground tissue in the center of herbaceous stem is known as

8. points along the stem that produce leaves are called

9. like _____, roots are capable of both primary and secondary growth

10. a gas exchange occurs on the underside of each leaf through little openings called

11. leaf divided into two or more leaflets connected in one central location; white cover

Down

1. leaf divided into leaflets that further divide into smaller leaflets; minosa

2. not divided into leaflets; bamboo

3. what is the broad part of a leaf called

4. what keeps a tree standing up right

6. what is under the epidermis