

bus law

Across

4. employees are not required to belong to a union or to pay dues

8. the NLRB will acknowledge a union as the exclusive bargaining agent

9. 30% of employees decide if they want representation they can petition NLRB

10. the employers agrees that workers must belong to the recognized union

11. this prohibit compulsory union membership and ban the union shop

12. the worker wants to be represented by a particular union

Down

1. an injunction issued in this manner is termed.

2. employment contracts that contained this term earned the name.

3. management denied voluntary recognition

5. any group of employees whose employment contract is negotiated together.

6. a variation of the union shop

7. non-union employees may be hired