

certification vocab

Across

- 2. primary or line flowers used in a design to establish the outline of the arrangement
- 3. the tight positioning of flower clusters at the base of an arrangement forming rounded hills
- 12. a triangular pattern with a strong "L-Line".
- 13. describes the lightens its tints
- 14. cell process in which stored food reserves are converted into useful energy for the plant

15. the relationship between the completed arrangement and its location

Down

- 1. contain more than one single focal point
- 4. combination of equal amounts of primary color and adjacent secondary color.
- 5. Growers, wholesalers and retail florist must process their flowers
- 6. the design consist of several layers of materials, varying in size and texture to create a flowering effect.

- 7. a purpose of foliage is to hide the mechanics in a flower arrangement
- 8. removing all foliage from the stem that is below the water level in an arrangement helps prevent bacterial growth
- 9. corsage wiring technique in which the wire is shaped into a hair pin
- 10. used to create focal point with unusual and distinctive shapes
- 11. a hue darkened by the addition of black forms a shade of the hue.