

Name: _____

ch18-20 key terms

Across

- 2. occurs when water flows fastest in the middle and slower on the edges of tubing
- 6. a community of microorganisms that accumulates on surfaces in moist areas
- 9. the center for all clinical and treatment activity
- 10. written document that provides comprehensive information about a chemical and information on how to contact its manufacturer

11. the medical combination of mechanical materials

12. foot controlled pedal device used to operate and control the dental hand pieces

Down

- 1. unit of measure for numbers of viable bacteria per milliliter
- 3. specified room or meeting area where extensive personal or health related issues are discussed concerning the patient

4. clinical or control area where all dental treatment is performed

5. regulated waste that has been in contact with blood or other body fluids

7. chemical waste that is potentially harmful to humans or environment

8. a matrix produced by some bacteria from their cell wall