

chapter 19 vocab

Across

1. immunity that is developed during a person's lifetime
2. disease that is communicable
5. immunity that is present at birth
10. an infection of short duration that is often severe
14. ability of the body to resist disease
15. extreme hypersensitivity to a substance that can lead to shock and life threatening respiratory collapse
16. an infection that occurs through surfaces of the eyes, nose, or mouth
17. disease causing organism
18. guidelines designed to protect employees against occupational exposure to bloodborne pathogens
19. touching or contact with a patient's blood or saliva

20. policies and practices designed to prevent the spread of infectious agent
21. items such as protective clothing, masks, gloves, and eyewear used to protect employees

22. waste that poses a danger to humans or to the environment

Down

3. waste that is capable of transmitting an infectious disease
4. persistent infection with recurrent symptoms that come and go
6. standard of care designed to protect the healthcare provider from pathogens that can be spread by blood or any other body fluids via excretion
7. an infection of long duration

8. disease that is caused by microorganisms such as viruses or bacteria that are carried in blood
9. conditions that all must be present for infection to occur
11. items such as gloves and patient napkins that may contain potentially infectious bodily fluids of patients
12. any reasonable anticipated skin, eye or mucous membrane contact or percutaneous injury involving blood or any other potentially infectious
13. conditions caused by an infection that can be spread from person to person or through contact with body fluids