

chapter 2 key terms (part 1)

Across

- 2. Behavior understood as response to external stimulation
- 5. Sociological perspective focus on individuals, how interactions create/ recreate sense of society
- 7. Idea that perception is shaped by history and culture rather than something fixed
- 8. People who are important to us and whose opinion we value
- 9. Established and accepted cultural practices and behaviors

- 11. Interactions perspective analyze society and situations terms of subjective meaning
- 12. Exposure affluent goods and desirable goods suffers happiness is bought
- 13. fundamental assumptions on which a particular perspective or ideology is based

Down

- 1. Cultural manipulation produce particular social outcomes Ex gender equality

- 3. Theory develop Marxist seeks understanding criticize nature of capitalist societies
- 4. Theory that our sense of self development is from what people think of us
- 6. debate in social sciences, whether behaviour can be explained in biological or cultural terms.
- 10. Theory structure and actions equally significant terms of ability understand relationship between individual and society