

Name: _____

Date: _____

chapter 2 serv safe

Across

7. conditions for bacteria to grow

9. plants, mushrooms, and seafood can be a _____ contaminant.

10. one of the big eight allergens

11. to prevent a allergic reaction you should read the food _____ on the back to see what it contains

13. bacteria grows well in

Down

1. hepatitis A has this symptom.

2. when a _____ contamination occurs it has objects in it like a bandage or glass.

3. require a host to live and reproduce.

4. cleaners, sanitizers, and personal beauty products are all examples of _____ contaminants.

5. transferred feces to the mouth causing what food borne illness?

6. found in the intestines of cattle and becomes contaminated during slaughter.

8. temperature control for safety

12. includes yeasts, molds, and mushrooms

Word Bank

jaundice parasite fathom wheat physical ecoli chemical fungi tcs moisture label biological norovirus