

chapter 4 vocabulary

Across

3. what is a reasonable ground for belief called?
 4. what is the unlawful offering or giving of anything of value to influence performance of an official in the carrying out of their public or legal duties called?
 6. what is falsely making or materially altering a writing to defraud another called?
 8. what is the willful and illegal burning or exploding of a building called?
 12. what is a criminal defense based on how the evidence was obtained or how the accused was arrested, questioned, or tried called?
 13. what is a crime punishable by either a fine of more than $1,000 or by confinement for more than one year in a state prison or both or by death called?

14. what is the person who receives the stolen property known as?
 16. what is a legal position that disproves, justifies, or otherwise excuses an alleged criminal act called?
 19. what is an action that hinders the administration of justice?
 20. what is a crime punishable by confinement in a county or city jail for one year or less, or by fine of $1,000 or less, or both called?

Down

1. what is the use of the force that appears to be reasonably necessary to the victim to prevent death, serious bodily harm, rape, or kidnapping called?
 2. what is a legal position taken by an accused to defeat the charges against them called?

5. what is an agreement between two or more people to commit a crime called?
 7. what is any penalty provided by law and imposed by a court called?
 9. what is an accused person admitting guilt to a less serious crime in exchange for having a more serious charge dropped called?
 10. what is an offense committed in the business world called?
 11. what is a punishable offense against society?
 15. what is another term for theft, the wrongful taking of money or personal property?
 17. what is the freedom from prosecution even when one has committed the crime charged called?
 18. what is another term for blackmail?