

chapter 6 review

Across

- 3. after the mother gave birth
- 10. safety device that operates to provide overcurrent protection
- 11. yellowing of the skin
- 13. its important or very serious
- 14. space between the bones of the skull
- 16. record the heart beat of the fetus
- 17. not likely to give away
- 18. to find out the health of a new born baby
- 22. a shortening of the uterine muscles

- 24. orange-yellow pigment formed in the liver
 - 25. the first section from the mammary glands after giving birth
 - 26. a greasy deposit covering the skin of a baby
 - 27. deliver a baby
- Down
- 1. transition from the uterine to the external world
 - 2. the newborn in the mothers hospital room
 - 4. fine, or soft hair
 - 5. breastfeeding specialists trained to teach mothers

- 6. after the birth of a child and extending six weeks
- 7. the cervix is opening
- 8. attached to the parents
- 9. the lower end of the uterus
- 12. from the umbilical cord
- 15. protection for premature babies
- 19. induced by administration of gases
- 20. ongoing source of the differentiated cells
- 21. use a drug to make a women go into labor
- 23. close relationship being developed