

chapter 8

Across

1. Combinations of parenting behaviors that occurs over a wide range of situations, creating and enduring child-rearing climate

2. When a adult helps make the child aware of feelings by pointing out the effects of child's misbehavior on others

4. According to ____, once children have sense of autonomy, they become less contrary than they were as toddlers

8. Set of attribute, abilities, and values that an individual believes define who he or she is

11. what motivates moral actions ?

12. Is cold and rejecting frequency degrades the child

14. According to ____, young children form a superego, by adopting the same-sex parent's moral .

15. Harms other through physical injury

16. full understanding of the biologically based permanence of their gender

Down

3. An information-processing that combines social learning and cognitive developmental features

5. Is warm responsive, attentive, and sensitive to the child needs

6. The judgment we make about our own worth and the feelings associated with judgement

7. when you children have a new sense of purposefulness

9. A technique that involves removing children from the immediate setting

10. The Fijians believe that __ (sense) appears.

13. Another emotional capacity that becomes more common in Early childhood