

coarctation of the aorta

Across

4. coarctation of the aorta -----
 6. the most common test to confirm the diagnosis
 8. the ----- is narrower than usual not allowing enough blood to pass
 9. coarctation of the aorta is a ----- of the large blood vessel that leads for the heart
 10. pulses in the leg and groin will be noticeably -----

11. the cause is ----- but may be cause by teratogens

Down

1. may be needed soon after birth
 2. the patient may show signs of -----
 3. this is a simple bedside test to determine oxygen in the baby's blood
 5. the patient may present with ----
 7. this condition can cause blood supple to the lower body to be ---