

Name: _____

Date: _____

cognitive

Across

6. the portion of long term memory which contains personal experiences

8. forgetting in STM due to new and incoming information

11. theory that states we make assumptions about our own behavior and that of others

12. the process of recreating a whole memory when only given a part of the scenario

13. The process of identification presented information as familiar

14. according to associationism, competition between items can hamper learning and produce forgetting

16. a modality specific transient form of memory which serves as a buffer between the senses and short term memory

17. The process of gathering information and organizing into mental schemas

Down

1. Handles retention of memory infinitely

2. problem that has a single solution

3. the principle that remembering and forgetting are dependent without proper cues. information which exists in long term memory may not be accessible

4. An improvement in performance which occurs by reviewing despite the inability to recall or recognize the information

5. Handles retention of material up to 15 seconds

7. The retention and use of prior learning

9. the retention of information in memory

10. the processing of stimulus information for retention in memory

15. Active retrieval of information