

Name: _____ Date: _____

college application by N. meh

Across

1. weighted GPAs include an extra point on a 4.0- point scales for honors and advance placement classes. Using an unweighted GPA system, an "A" is worth a 4.0 and a "B" is worth a 3.0. With a weighted GPA system, an "A" in an honors/AP class is worth a 5.0 and a "B" is worth a 4.0, ect.
6. students can get "work study " jobs on campus and the u.s federal government helps pay their work study salary.
7. primarily offer degrees in undergraduate and graduate programs that focus on fine and performing arts(e.g. Julliard school), business, or engineering.
8. are typically schools that offer two-year degrees in specific employment- preparation skills such as computer technology, culinary arts, health care.
9. colleges issue "acceptances", "denials", and "wait lists" may be accepted later if other students already accepted or ahead of them on the wait list choose not to go to that school. If wait-listed definitely call the school and tell them how/why you are interested in attending that school and ask when the wait list applicants will be notified about acceptance status.

10. is awarded when a student completes his/her four-year college/university coursework and requirement.

Down

2. if an applicant qualifies based on FAFSA information, the u.s government pays for any interest accrued during college and gives a loan grace period after college graduation.
3. Each college has a different SAT or ACT college code number. SAT and ACT scores will be forward to the colleges based on the college codes submitted by the applicant.
4. unlike subsidized loans, the government does not supplement interest accrued during college.
5. Includes information about the student's class rank, GPA,academic courses , attendance rate, and any discipline accidents. It may also include letters of recommendation from the counselor and/ or teachers. The SR is part of the college application requirements and is usually completed by a high school guidance counselor.