

Name: _____

Date: _____

construction safety

Across

- 2. The term used to describe death or injury by electric shock
- 8. The intentional addition of outdoor air to a room or building.
- 9. materials that can chemically destroy exposed body tissue and other materials examples include hydrochloric acid, sulfuric acid, ammonium hydroxide and potassium hydroxide.
- 10. the process of being deprived of oxygen that can lead to unconsciousness or death by suffocation
- 11. Work that includes the removal of soil or rock from a worksite using tools, machinery or explosives.

Down

- 1. workplaces chemicals that may be present in the form of dust, fumes, gases or vapors
- 3. The process of removing and neutralizing contaminants that are present on employees and equipment.
- 4. symbols used to represent specific hazards.
- 5. a person or system used to transport, carry or communicate items or information.
- 6. A chemical or material that can oxidize other substances.
- 7. The scientific study of the adverse side effects of chemical exposure.