

Name: _____

Date: _____

crossword 2

Across

8. an award letter from a school states the type and amount of financial aid the school is willing to provide if the student accepts admission and registers to take classes at that school.

11. failure to repay a loan according to the terms agreed when a contract is signed.

14. balance of cash, checking and savings accounts, trusts, stocks, bonds, other securities, real estate, income-producing property, business equipment, and business inventory.

15. Individual who signed and agreed to the terms in the promissory note.

16. A financial plan that helps track money and spending.

17. a summary of an individual's financial history.

18. the written acknowledgement by the receipt of an award offer.

19. Loans given out by the U.S. Department of Education.

20. The process where interest accumulates a loan.

21. an undergraduate academic degree awarded for a course of study two years in length.

22. a student that relies on parent or guardian assistance during college.

23. A program that is accredited by the university of department of education.

Down

1. a period of time schools use to measure a quantity of study.

2. A four-digit number assigned to a student's FAFSA

3. The number of credits a student is registered for in a particular educational program.

4. an undergraduate academic degree awarded for a course of study that is generally four or five years in length

5. the formal acknowledgement of successful completion of a particular program or course of study.

6. the number that's used to determine your eligibility for federal student aid.

7. refers to the school meeting certain minimum academic standards, as defined by the accrediting body.

9. all taxable income as reported on a U.S. income tax return.

10. Payment of loan proceeds to the borrower via the school by the lender.

12. The process of combining one or more loans into a single loan.

13. The total amount of money it cost to attend a particular university.