cyberword what is the problem

Across

3. it's an IT program which develops copying itself

4. the personal computer is infected by a malware which permits hackers to control it

6. driving users to a false web site to steal their personal inforation

8. a software which permits hackers to collect data without autorization

9. it's a malware desguised in an authentical softwars

10. when you replacing an information by another on to hide the content

11. pretending be someone to cause problems to someone

Down

1. a software which identifies and protectd your computer and personal data

2. it's a set of technologies, processes, and actions aiming to protect networks , computers and data against IT attacks , damages and non authorized access

5. immitating a commercial brand to steal personal data like CB card ,bank information

7. using a computer from inside to access to private information