

Name: _____

Date: _____

digestive system

Across

5. An organ located under the liver that stores bile which helps digestion

7. A small cavity where digestion starts

9. A large reddish-brown organ that filters the blood and secretes bile used for digestion

10. An organ that produces digestive juices that break down food after it releases the stomach

Down

1. A winding big folded tube that absorbs excess water from undigested food

2. A large canal that absorbs water back into the body and then it eliminates the waste

3. Process by which nutrients pass through the wall of the digestive system into the blood

4. A muscular passage that brings food and liquids to the stomach

6. Large muscular sac that digests food

8. Muscular organ which assists with chewing and swallowing