

digestive system

Across

4. it is a tube connected to the cecum
 9. its internal walls have folds with glands that secrete the gastric juices
 10. it belongs to the large intestine and has three parts
 13. small and flexible cartilage that prevents food from reaching the respiratory tract
 14. it produces bile
 16. valve at the entry point of the stomach
 18. the last section of the digestive tract

20. liquid that facilitates the digestion and absorption of lipids
 22. the first part of the small intestine
 23. it secretes the pancreatic juice into the duodenum

Down

1. it is the longest tube in the digestive system
 2. the largest accessory gland
 3. the entry point of the digestive tract
 5. proteins that help to break down different nutrients
 6. the place where bile is stored

7. salivary glands located close to the ears
 8. the accessory glands that secrete saliva into the mouth
 11. cavity shared by the digestive and respiratory systems
 12. valve at the exit point of the stomach
 15. they are to bite and break the food
 17. the rectum terminates in the
 19. it is to mix and swallow food
 21. a tube that extends down the thorax, across the diaphragm and into the stomach