

economics puzzle

Across

1. the fact of having a right to something.
3. the act of expending something, especially funds
5. the total amount of money that a country's government has borrowed, by various means.
9. for each person
11. an amount of money given to a local government, an institution, or a particular scholar.
12. are among the oldest primary units of the executive branch of the federal government of the United States
14. is responsible for economic forecasting and fiscal policy analysis, scorekeeping, cost projections, and an Annual Report

15. A situation when increased interest rates lead to a reduction in private investment spending such that it dampens the initial increase of total investment spending
16. a year as reckoned for taxing or accounting purposes.
18. reports to the President, Vice President and the White House Chief of Staff.
19. Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985
20. controlled by the government
21. a payment made or income received in which no goods or services are being paid for
22. is the budget for the executive branch

Down

2. items that are tangible (books, pens, salt)
4. first monday past january 3
6. not controlled by the government
7. the amount that the government spends in total or on a particular thing:
8. a constitutional rule requiring that a state cannot spend more than its income.
10. government spending, in excess of revenue, of funds raised by borrowing rather than from taxation.
13. a parliamentary grant to the sovereign for state needs.
17. the power of a president, governor, or other elected executive to reject individual provisions of a bill.