

Name: _____

Date: _____

ecuador

Across

- 2. my favorite animal
- 4. Originally named for the Earl of Abingdon,
- 6. first island to be colonized by Ecuadorians in 1832.
- 7. also called Barrington Island after British Admiral Samuel Barrington, is a small, relatively flat island at the center of the Archipelago,
- 11. the fifth largest and easternmost island of the Galapagos.
- 12. is one of the most volcanically varied islands in the archipelago.

- 13. first appeared on the navigational charts and crude map produced by the British buccaneer Ambrose Cowley in 1684.
  - 14. the second largest of the Galapagos Islands and located in the center of the archipelago.
  - 15. originally named James Island after England's King James II, was the second of the Galapagos Islands visited by Charles Darwin
- ### Down
- 1. the southernmost of the Galapagos Islands and is also one of the oldest.
  - 3. most popular tourist attractions

- 5. The seahorse-shaped Isabela Island was originally named Albemarle Island for the Duke of Albemarle by Ambrose Cowley, one of the first men to ever set foot on the islands, in 1684.
- 8. a horse-shoe shaped island located in the northeastern region of the Galapagos Archipelago.
- 9. named for the brothers Pinzón, captains of the Pinta and the Niña on Columbus' voyage to the New World, sits at the center of the archipelago.
- 10. the largest of the northern islands