

Name: _____

Date: _____

elements of poetry

Across

1. direct comparison of unlike things (not using like or as)
4. a comparison that gives human qualities to an object, animal, or idea
7. the repetition of the same sounds at the end of words
8. repetition of a sound, syllable, word, phrase, line, stanza
11. compares two unlike things using like or as
12. the pattern of stressed and unstressed syllables
15. a genre that is written in stanzas and lines

16. the poem tells a story beginning/middle/end

18. a group of lines in a poem ; a verse; like a paragraph in a book

19. language that appeals to the readers sense of sight, hearing, touch, smell and taste

Down

2. a common or overused expression that is not to be taken literally

3. words or expressions whose meaning is different than the literal meaning

5. the use of words that imitate sounds or noises

6. poem that does not use consistent rhythm, rhyme, or any other musical pattern

9. poem that has a consistent rhyme and rhythm

10. the repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words

13. the message or lesson that the poet is trying to communicate with the reader

14. exaggerated statements of claims that are not meant to be taken literally

17. the general attitude or feeling a poem give the reader