

formal presidential powers

Across

2. The president can appoint ____ form the state department.
 6. The president is chosen by the ____.
 8. Must be 35 ____ old to become president
 12. The president can ____ federal and supreme court judges.
 13. The president can propose ____, but needs a congress man or senator to introduce it into congress.

Down

1. ____ Powers given to the executive branch by the constitution.
 3. The state of the union address can set a policy ____ for the next year.
 4. The president has the power to make ____, to improve diplomatic relations
 5. The president is commander and chief of the ____.

7. The president has ____ power, which means he makes sure that laws are carried out
 9. Must be a US ____ to become president.
 10. The president is chief ____ which is the source of his foreign policy power.
 11. The president gives a state of the ____ address to congress.

Word Bank

executive agenda
 laws
 union

years ambassadors
 diplomat

citizen
 treaties
 armedforces

formal electoralcollege
 appoint